Ta ble 6. Same-G ps in the C rch: S a Th eol gical Viewpoints

	Cre	-affirming Vi oints	R der tion
Pro. ibitio	Sa be	Reconcilia Repent of identit the churc hibits desire an avior.	R etu to true heterosexual n atu
Tole ation	Sa en de	Repent of s choice. welcomin r perso non-affir of de	S oic ceptance of one's t agi ate through absti- n enc
Acc mmo dation	Sa tra to	Focus: ga l lesbi relationsh While are disob t in fo they may bedie substanc nonog mous.	E xch ve, same-sex partner- s ips re better than promis- c nity – i.e., they are the l sse f the evils.
	Cr	g and Affirm Viewp	R ede ption
Leg itima ion	Sa lik di	Reconcili Focus: or tion. R t of singlin t gay s and igno other	R rea a just world in which c iffe nces no longer make a c iffe nce.
Cel bratio n	Es a	Gays an ians n to be rec ed to t goodnes heir se orientati	I ive to one's sexual orienta- t ion God's good gift.
Lib eratio n	Sc of	Challeng ary ge l categorie ale-fe .	Affi complexity of gender hoi s.
	C	ffirming, ana lering i poin	Red ption
Co secra tion	Se bi ai to	Reconcil Sin does reside orientati r beha per se b wheth one's life ghtly dered. O dation are a me of gra	One sexuality is to be con- ecr ed through an exclu- sive ommitted covenant, bles d by the church. Hu- man , not sexuality, are the obje s of our celebration.

A TIME TO

Same-Gender Re
in Religion, Law,

William Stacy

WILLIAM B. EERDMANS PUB
GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN /
2006