

Christine Helmer

2017-2018 -

Jewish

Relations.

Christine Helmer (Ph.D.ofy afternsar Prantessor Religious atualiesth western in University). The Professor Helmer was awarded an honorary doctorate theology from the faculty of theology at the University Helsinki in previous and a yring urvu cz frygrufw ubx teaching specialization is Christian theology from historical, systematic, and constructive perspectives. Her work is focused on German intellectual history with primary interest in the theology of Martin Luther, the philosophy and theology of Friedrich Schleiermacher, and the flourishing of scholarship on Luther and on religion in early twentieth-century Germany, known as the Lutherrenaissance. Prof. Helmer is the author of many articles and books, including her monograph The Trinity and Martin Luther (Zabern 1999) and her new book Theology and the End of Doctrine (Westminster John Knox Press 2014).

8 if [b['DfcZ' < Y'a Yff y hybify' Ly'h Y'7 cf w f Luther Renaissance and the Jewish Renaissance on the modern study of religion and