

Daniel J. Lasker, Norbert Blechner Professor of Jewish Values at Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, is the 2010-2011 Corcoran Visiting Chair at the Center for Christian-Jewish Learning. Prof. Lasker has numerous publications in the fields of Jewish philosophy and theology, the Jewish-Christian debate, Karaism, the Jewish calendar, and Judaism and modern medicine. His most recent publications include From Judah Hadassi to Elijah Bashyatchi: Studies in Late Medieval Karaite Philosophy

he world.

In addition to his research activities, Prof. Lasker's contributions W*nBT/$\overline{\bmathbf{h}}\) 1.04\text{Ff1} 0 0 1 91.4\text{207.86Tm0} g()]TJI

"Are We Living in a Post-

Polemical Era?"